

Ms. Gokturk
SOPH I

Name: _____
Following: _____

The Dead Poet's Society

Select a character to follow (or I will assign one). Please listen for quotes said by your character or about your character. Note his behavior and desires, fears, and philosophy.

Major Characters: figure out who's who include how your character interacts with yours as you watch the film.

Neil Perry – outgoing, enthusiastic	Todd Anderson – Neil's quiet roommate, new student
Mr. John Keating – outgoing new English teacher	Knox Overstreet – romantic, wants to seize the day
Charlie Dalton – wealthy, disobedient	Cameron – red headed conformist
Pitts – tall, quiet	Meeks – runny nose, red head
Mr. Perry – Neil's domineering father	Keating's Colleagues

SETTING. Describe your character's relationship with this place.	How is your character more a child than an adult at the beginning of the film?
Attitude and Philosophy. What is your character's perspective on life?	Flaws. What might be your character's flaws or weaknesses? What does your character fear? What obstacles stand in his way?
Desires and Values. What things matter to your character?	End. Where does your character end up? What kind of man is he at this point?